Genesis Curriculum

The story of Jesus interacting with the Emmaus disciples after his resurrection provides an outline for what a gospel-centered kids ministry looks like: gospel-centered teaching that points to Jesus in every session, gospel-centered transformation that positions the gospel to change a child's heart and then his or her behavior, and gospel-centered mission where kids join in on the big story of Jesus that continues to unfold. Seven out of ten kids will walk away from church after they turn eighteen. About five will return when they have families of their own. But two will never return. Clearly, something isn't connecting with our kids. As kids ministry leaders, we need to take a hard look at what we are missing in our kids ministries and provide kids the one thing that will satisfy them and keep them connected to the church—the gospel. Gospel-Centered Kids Ministry also addresses how to communicate with and encourage gospel-centered leaders and parents as part of your ministry.

The Birth of Christ

The Bible can be overwhelming. There are 66 books, written by over 40 different authors. It's easy to see how children (& adults!) get confused when studying the different characters, stories, and teachings of the Bible. Imagine picking up one of Shakespeare's books and trying to read page 200, then page 10, then page 150. It wouldn't make any sense! Yet, this is what we do with the Bible! We hop around and go "out of order." Abraham one day, David the next, and Jesus the following week. It can seem like these men all walked side-by-side, but in fact they lived 1,000 years apart! The two things missing from most Bible lessons are PLACEMENT & CONTEXT. Our Books of the Bible Reference Sheets were designed to provide context to each of the 66 books of the Bible. Each book has its own one-page "cheat sheet" full of the who-what-when-where-why background information. They provide the necessary background to frame how a particular lesson fits into God's historic story. They are the ultimate companion to ANY Bible lesson.
