Compensation for Personal Injury in English, German and Italian Law

Cross-border claims for personal injuries are becoming more common. Furthermore, European nationals increasingly join class actions in the USA. These tendencies have created a need to know more about the law of damages in Europe and America. Despite the growing importance of this subject, there is a dearth of material available to practitioners to assist them in advising their clients as to the heads of damage recoverable in other countries. This book aims to fill that gap by looking at the law in England, Germany and Italy. It sets out the raw data in the wider context of tort law, then provides a closer synthesis, largely concerned with methodological issues, and draws some comparative conclusions.

injury. The Guidelines are designed to provide a clear and logical framework for the assessment of general damages while leaving the discretion of the assessor unfettered, since every case must depend to a degree on its own facts. They provide an invaluable guide to all those involved in personal injury litigation. As with previous editions, all judges involved in hearing personal injury cases will automatically receive a copy of the book. This eleventh edition has been fully updated to take account of inflation and decisions made in the two years since the previous edition and includes a foreword written by The Right Honourable Dame Janet Smith DBE.

The Ontario Reports

Devoted to sentencing law, this work contains up to 40 important sentencing decisions with details of every judgment. It covers headnotes, each containing a key-word summary of the main issues and the background of the case, the judgment given and a list of cases referred to in the judgment.

A working manual for practitioners assessing damages in personal injury work, this book is fully cross-referenced to Kemp and Kemp on Quantum of Damages and acts as a portable guide to this work. This edition has been reorganized and expanded to reflect the fast-changing nature of this area of law so that all principal topics and important recent developments are covered. Areas updated in this edition include: damages on death; damages for non-pecuniary loss; damages for past pecuniary loss; damages for future pecuniary loss; and the incidence of benefits. Key case law is also covered, such as Digby v Essex County Council and Khan v Armaguard on the disclosing of tele-visual evidence, and Larby v Thurgood on a refusal to stay action unless the plaintiff attends an examination by an employment consultant.

Halsbury's Laws of England

This is a working guide to the preparation of pleadings in line with recent Rules of Court and judicial guidelines. It gives a thorough selection of pleadings, yet it gives in-depth coverage of this subject which goes far beyond the simple presentation of forms, providing many models, hints and research information for the preparation of pleadings. The industrial accident pleadings account for both old and new schemes to comply with the split application of the recent health and safety regulations.
